

SON OF A MAN
 HIJO DE UN HOMBRE

Delian se enfrenta a la masculinidad en unos sueños al recordar su último encuentro sexual interrumpido por su padre, con quien sólo comparte las astillas de su rota relación mientras está obligado a vivir con él hasta conseguir un trabajo.

Delian confronts masculinity in his dreams as he recalls his last sexual encounter interrupted by his father, with whom he shares only the splinters of his broken father-son relationship and forced to live with him until he gets a job.
