

FORBIDDEN LANDSCAPE

PAISAJE

PROHIBIDO

David interpreta a un detective que busca a un cineasta perdido. Tras los ensayos, su memoria se comienza a confundir con la ficción del personaje, lo que da lugar a un viaje lisérgico, que le hace entender que habita otra dimensión y que no lo encontrará.

David plays a detective searching for a missing filmmaker. After the rehearsals, the fiction begins, confusing his memory with the characters. He causes a lysergic trip that makes him understand he lives in another dimension and will not find him.
